NETSOL INTERNATIONAL OBTAINS TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
NEVADA JUDGE SIDES WITH MANAGEMENT TEAM

CALABASAS, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 12, 2001--NetSol International, Inc. (NASDAQ: NTWK, WWW.NETSOL-INTL.COM) announced today that management obtained a temporary restraining order yesterday, entitling it to oust the insurgent shareholder group from Netsol's headquarters here. The insurgent group improperly gained entry to the company's corporate offices early yesterday morning with the assistance of armed security guards. Netsol's management team and eight member board of directors continue to run the company. Under the Nevada court order, the insurgent shareholder group and the directors it claims to have elected are prohibited from taking any action whatsoever with respect to the company, at least until the court hearing scheduled for Friday June 15, 2001. The Court found that NetSol has shown a reasonable probability of success on the merits of its claim, specifically that the defendants are not properly elected members of the Board of Directors of NetSol, and that their purported election violates Nevada law.

"We believe that the insurgent shareholder group's public claim of victory was irresponsible, and, at the very least, premature since an independent party has not counted the votes cast to date," stated Najeeb Ghauri, chief executive officer of Netsol. "We are disappointed with the conduct of the insurgent group and the manner in which they continue to conduct this contest, which by no means is over."

Irfan Mustafa, Netsol's chairman of the board of directors, went on to say "We remain confident that we will win this proxy contest. We are looking forward to directing our energy towards increasing shareholder value as opposed to fighting this wasteful proxy contest."

The company filed its definitive proxy materials with the SEC in connection with the special meeting to be held June 19, 2001 in response to NetSol Shareholder Group LLC's request to expand the company's board of directors from eight to fifteen members and fill the newly created vacancies with its hand picked nominees.

The company's board of directors urges its shareholders to contact MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at (800) 322-2885 or PROXY@MACKENZIEPARTNERS.COM for more information. Netsol's board of directors also urges its shareholders to read the entire proxy statement because it contains important information.
